Dedication

To my Beloved partner Karen Feeley in this joyous dance of our lives.

With my deepest love, gratitude and appreciation for all of your support, encouragement and Love!

IN THE BEGINNING

We all want a better Quality of Life. Yet, try as hard as we can, it seems like we are chasing a shadow. No matter what we do it seems that it is never enough. We keep on chasing this illusive goal yet we seem to end up no better off than before. We feel like a hamster that is zipping along on their wheel going at a furious pace but going no where. So much so that we start to give up hope, we tell our self this is just the way things are. Life is a struggle. Our lofty goals are just a figment of our imagination. As we begin to let go of our passion for a better life, our light gradually flickers and then dims. We have convinced our self to live the rest of our life in quiet desperation.

Is this what is in store for us? Is this what's at the end of the illusive dream? NO! There is hope! There is a life out there for each and every person that is full of passion, joy, love, eagerness, enthusiasm and vitality.

We have just been misinformed as to how to go about getting from here to there.

NO! I am not going to tell you the top 10, 100 or even 1 secret to success. There are no secrets! The answer to this question and by the way all of your questions about life are deep within you. They have and always will be right there in front of you. What is missing is a change in perspective. Amazing that it is such a little thing.

Remember the old black and white silhouette of the beautiful woman? When you were able to change your perspective she turned into an old hag. This is a great analogy for your life. Do you want to view life from a perspective of beauty or ugliness? When you change your perspective your life will open up and all things become possible.

My sincere desire is to be a guide and a facilitator for you. You will be provided with the tools, the resources and most importantly of all the support to make the transition from the old ways of doing things to a new way of Being.

My intent is to provide you with:

- A practical, understandable and easy to use model of how you can create a richer vibrational Quality of Life for yourself and your loved ones.
- An easy, understandable map of the Globe of Awareness and how to navigate and tap into resources you never knew you had.
- An understanding of the basic spiritual principles and laws that govern our universe.
- Tools, resources, contacts, links and support for your journey.
- An online education and information center, specifically a center for exploring and discovering ones' vibrational relativity.
- A place where you take what you have learned from the various teachers in your life and integrate and assimilate those principles and concepts into your everyday existence. I call this “The Transformational Center.”

- Access to workshops, webinars, interviews, audios, videos, and pod casts that will help to facilitate your understanding of this process.
- A personalized safe space in an online environment in which to write, collect and keep your musings and journals.

TRANSFORMING A WHEEL INTO A GLOBE

Allow me to guide you to a place of understanding where you'll see how past models of health and wellness have served us and why. With what is currently unfolding in our world there is a need for an upgraded model.

The wellness wheel was developed to better explain our relationship with health and what the components of health were. It has been a vital part of helping people to see that there was more to health and wellness than they previously thought. The wellness wheel has assisted people to see that there is a need for balance and harmony in all aspects of one's life. In the traditional model of the wellness wheel, ones' life is usually broken down into the various sections of a wheel. The wheel is typically divided into these sections; they are the physical, mental, financial, family, spiritual, social, and career. In separating the various aspects of one's life into categories and parts, this tends to label a person from a mechanistic point of view. This is the allure of the mechanistic viewpoint; breaking everything down into its separate parts and then "fixing" the seemingly flawed part, therefore making the whole better. In Ultimate Reality, no-thing needs to be "fixed." The wellness wheel also disconnects us from our spirituality and categorizes it as just one of the various segments that makes up our life.

Our vibrational essence is what and who we are, not some separate part of us. Scandurra gave a clearer picture of how spirituality fits into the wellness wheel.

“Structurally, it represents the “connective tissue” of wellness, functionally, it acts as the “heart” of wellness” – the integrative capacity that brings meaning to all of one’s life experiences.”

-Anita Scandurra, “Spirituality The Heart of Wellness” 2004

Additionally very little is stated in the old wellness wheel to show how everything is connected to everything else. The best model I found that includes ones spirituality and is very holistic comes from Loielle Margot, PhD MSW & McKenzie Laurette MSW in their paper on “The Wellness Wheel An Aboriginal Contribution to Social Work.”

Our predominate cultural story is one of: Do-Have-Be. Doing is held in high regard in our society. The wellness wheel is a product of that mentality. It is geared from the framework of first coming from the perspective of; what can I do to have better health, more money or a new car. Then when I do all of those things I will have a better job, more money, a healthy body. Finally as a result of all of that hard work and effort I will be, acceptable, successful, happy, and so on. Doing is not sustainable. As it is clearly stated throughout the Abraham-Hicks book series, “No amount of massive action will ever replace coming from your Inner Being.”

Setting about on a course of seeing how much we can do, will continue to lead us chasing our tails around and around and getting us no where. Here is where we can get off of the hamster wheel and finally learn about how we may create a deeper, richer inner vibrational Quality of Life.

The other side of doing is coming from Beingness. We have forgotten our true birthright that is wellness, health and well-being. These are states of Beingness. "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; we are spiritual beings having a human experience."-- Pierre Teilhard de Chardin.

Wellness, health and happiness are vibrational states of Beingness. Now is the time to let go of the old and antiquated doing model and return to our natural way of Being. The Globe of Awareness will guide you to transforming your life from the Do-Have-Be model to one of Being-Doing-Having.

The Globe of Awareness is a multi-dimensional illustration of the relationship of energy and how it flows through and around one's life. The Globe of Awareness will assist you to change your perspective, it will help you to see and feel the connection and the expression of your core, which is your Inner Being.

You will learn how everything in our life is about energy; how to look at your life in terms of energy. Looking at our lives in terms of energy, we must first begin to understand the role of energy management, vibration and frequency within spiritual laws and principles. I will tell you about some of the basic spiritual laws and principles and give you further links, articles and references on them.

THE GLOBE OF AWARENESS

The Globe of Awareness (GOA) is a representation, a model of the relationship of energy and how it flows to and from your center, which is your Inner Being, in and out through a variety of energy channels into a diversity of different facets of your life. All of which are contained within the living matrix which is pure consciousness.

Your inner being is the center, the core, the ALL of you. Your Inner Being is your individualized expression of God, the universe, pure consciousness. What you call it does not matter, for this is no matter to your Inner Being. Your Inner Being is pure energy, pure consciousness.

The Globe of Awareness is a synthesis, assimilation, an ongoing metamorphosis of a multitude of concepts and ideas focused around the creation of a richer inner vibrational Quality of Life.

My intent in creating the Globe of Awareness is to co-create greater clarity and understanding as to how one integrates and comes from various states of Beingness; then implementing these vibrational principles and laws into spiritual action in ones' everyday life.

Most significantly of all is my desire for you to see and experience how this information, these insights, will improve your overall individual inner vibrational Quality of Life, resulting in what I am calling “This New Earth.”

I define “This New Earth” as the collective, personal transformations that are currently happening all around this world. These transformations are a result of an individual improving their overall inner vibrational Quality of Life. And, as a result of the millions of individual’s increasing their own vibrational quality; they are vibrationally transforming this earth in which we live into “This New Earth.”

The foundational principles of the Globe of Awareness are based upon basic vibrational principles and concepts. Some of them are.

- The Law of Pure Potentiality
- The Law of Cause and Effect
- The Law of Attraction
- The Law of Sensitive Dependence
- The Law of Deliberate Creation

- The origin of everything is Oneness
- Love is all there is

Whether you agree or disagree with these basic simple vibrational principles does not really matter because like the Law of Gravity in this physical world, it cares not what you think or believe. To ignore the basic law of gravity 90 feet in the air will definitely invoke the law of cause and effect.

The same thing happens with vibrational laws and principles yet you are less inclined to acknowledge the effects and consequences of acting out of harmony with them. You then deny or ignore the effect and attribute it to something that comes from outside of you.

Once you have a basic understanding of these laws and principles and you begin to broaden your perspective, you will naturally be inspired to take action. This will give you an advantage to learn how to implement them into your daily life.

Then as you take actions that are in alignment with these principles you will see and experience how the quality of your life will become more joyous.

A central core concept of the Globe of Awareness is that we are vibrational Beings. Beingness is what and who we are.

“The soul’s awareness emerges from the soul’s level of consciousness. The soul’s consciousness emerges from the soul’s State of Being, That is, One with Everything, across all time and in every place. This is the Actual Truth and the Ultimate Reality.”

-Neale Donald Walsch, WECCE

Actual Truth and Ultimate Reality are our goals. This is where our Inner Being resides. Our journey is one of letting go of those blocks and interferences that have kept us from having the highest Quality of Life possible. Applying, integrating, embodying, putting into practical application, and living “States of Beingness” is what our lives are all about.

Herein lies the challenge, the opportunity, the excitement, the adventure of coming from Beingness, then doing the actions that are in alignment with that state of beingness and finally having the experience of coming from that state of beingness.

Our outer lives then be-come charged with spiritual powers that are in alignment with our inner purpose.

“Beingness” is the root, the cause of a richer inner vibrational Quality of Life. This is a key concept of the Globe of Awareness. I am not talking about increasing your outer quality of life.

As Michael Brown states in the Presence Process, “Our behavior, our appearance, and our life circumstances are not who or what we are: they are an experience we are having. They are the attributes of our ego.”

We are energy which is vibrational. We are our Inner Being which is an individualized expression of God. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin states it clearly and simply in this well known expression, “We are not human beings having a spiritual experience, we are spiritual beings having a human experience.”

What is occurring now is a transformational shift of perception from doing to being. This is what The Globe of Awareness is about; the co-creation of new forms of communication and social interaction based upon these basic vibrational laws and practices.

“The quality of all our outer experiences is determined by our internal state. The moment we get this will be the moment that we have consciously regained our freedom because we will then truly know through our experience that we are 100% responsible for the quality (emotional content) of our life experience.”

-Michael Brown, The Presence Process

My premise is that you are transforming from the old perception of who and what you think you are; which has been based upon Doing and outer validation; to originating from the core of your self and who you really are.

That is pure energy, pure consciousness, pure Being.

This is a life process and not a single event. The “GOA” is a tool to help you to learn and remember how to better navigate and connect with your Inner Being and as a result improve your overall inner vibrational Quality of our Life. I will be working with you, guiding you, giving you direct experiences of what I speak of, all of which to facilitate your journey and exploration of “The Globe of Awareness.”

We are an incredibly multifaceted and multi-dimensional masterpiece. Yet we continually try to utilize a one dimensional solution into our lives hoping that this one thing will “fix” everything. Fortunately this is not true. However, by beginning from a state of Beingness you will transform all dimensions of your life.

Most tools and techniques utilized by people are looking at and addressing the symptom, not the underlying core issue, the root cause.

“Unless the basic attitude that’s causing the energy imbalance is corrected, the illness tends to return.”

-David Hawkins, Power vs. Force 2002

Addressing symptoms will give temporary relief but not a foundational solution. What all people are looking for is the expression and experience of their Inner Being. This is the fundamental purpose of the Globe of Awareness. This is why I have provided a multitude of links, authors, teachers, practitioners and educational information in our resource section in our website at www.ThisNewEarth.com

TRANSFORMING DOING INTO BEING

The primary focus of the Globe of Awareness is about coming from our Inner Being and then expressing those various states of Beingness in all aspects of our lives.

So, how does one move from doing to being? We are not taught how to “Be.” We have forgotten our true nature. This is the heart of our transformational center that I have co-created in my companion website called “This New Earth.”

The transformational center is an environment of safety and support in which I co-created with others so that one may play with, try on, and experiment with the thoughts and ideas from the various authors and resources I cite.

The transformational center is a safe environment, a supportive place to practice various states of beingness. My desire is to come from and practice various states of beingness so that I am able to S.U.L.F.ASM you for your highest good. This acronym stands for: Safety, Support, Understanding, Love, To Listen, Forgiveness, Acceptance and Appreciation, of one another for each others highest good. Additionally in the website I have included references and links to affiliates that are professionals and dedicated to guiding and facilitating ones personal transformation from doing to being.

The Transformational Center is the place in which one learns and practices the tools and techniques that help you to, “Discover, Transform, Awaken and Integrate the various seasons of our lives.” (Epstein 2009)

One of the finest tools I found that describes this process is from Neale Donald Walsch’s book, “When Everything Changes, Change Everything.”

“What causes the events in our lives are the behaviors of our lives. And what causes the behavior of our lives are the beliefs of our lives. And what causes the beliefs of our lives are the perceptions of our lives. And what causes the perceptions of our lives are the perspectives of our lives. And this is where the soul comes in.

It is the soul that can enlarge the perspective of the mind beyond the limitations of currently held data.

The soul is able to do this because of the soul's level of awareness. The soul's awareness emerges from the soul's level of consciousness. The soul's level of consciousness emerges from the soul's State of Being. That is One with Everything, across all time and in every place. This is the Actual Truth and the Ultimate Reality.”

One of the biggest self imposed obstacles that you usually face is your belief about how enormous the effort is required to transform your life.

“...the law of sensitive dependence on initial conditions, drawing from the science of nonlinear dynamics and its mathematics. (Briggs and Peat 1989) Remember, that this describes the manner in which a minuscule variation in a pattern of inputs can result in a very significant change in the eventual output. This is because the repetition of a slight variation over time results in a progressive change of pattern,.... in a leap to a new harmonic. The effect of the minute variation becomes amplified until it eventually affects the entire system and a new energy pattern evolves-which, by the same process, may then result in a further variation, and so on.”

-David Hawkins, Power vs. Force 2002

Please read this over and over and remember that “minuscule” is the key word. This is where we have been given the greatest hope of all times. A very slight change, will transform our entire life! What a grand and wonderful gift the knowing of this will make in your life! This law is operating in your life yet you may not be consciously aware of it. The Law of Sensitive Dependence is a tool which we can utilize to be like David in the anecdote of David and Goliath; slaying the huge monster of the mind with such a miniscule positive loving thought.

Through simple, small conscious attention to the everyday activities of your life you can affect enormous transformations in your life and in the world. What a powerful tool you have been given.

A word of caution; trying to leap from our typical automated and habituated way of doing things to coming solely from our Inner Being through stillness is an awesome leap. Some have accomplished this; however having a progressive “bridging” between the two is an easier path. This is what my work here is all about; to guide and assist you, the traveler in your exploration to “This New Earth.”

This is an exciting place in which you will learn how to integrate and come from your Inner Being. Your soul, your Inner Being is the only part of yourself that can help you to see beyond your mind. Your Inner Being brings you from what Walsch calls the “Observed Reality to Absolute Reality.” Otherwise you will continually be caught up in the default loop of your mind.

IN CONCLUSION

I have lightly and briefly touched upon a wide variety of new ideas, concepts and perceptions. My dearest hope is that in having a taste of what I have just offered to you; that you will join me at my website and come together in community where my intent is to co-create new forms of communications and social interaction.

My deepest desire is to give hope to YOU, the reader, the seeker, who has asked and now is being given the assistance and the resources for creating a richer inner vibrational Quality of Life. The goal is to provide you with the ways and means in which to create a richer and fuller Quality of Life for your self and your loved ones.

The Globe of Awareness and the development of “This New Earth” website were created to provide the world with the first ever virtual visitor center, where people come to visit, explore, discover, receive hope, locate resources, get information, and acquire continuing education. Guests come together as a community to connect and co-create with like minded people and find guidance and transformational assistance for the co-creation of a higher inner vibrational Quality of Life.

Later on you will be introduced to the internal make up of the Globe of Awareness. You'll be shown how everything comes from your Inner Being and how energy flows through and affects all aspects of our lives.

The creation of this book, the website and the online environment has manifested a treasure trove of support, information, resources and people that will help you in your exploration of the Globe of Awareness and achieving a richer, deeper Quality of Life.

This material is ready for you at our website.
www.ThisNewEarth.com

I know that any steps you choose to take will improve your quality of life in ways you can hardly imagine.

I deeply appreciate you sharing this journey with me. As a valued reader, I am offering the Globe of Awareness at the greatly reduced rate of $24.95 for a 10 pack. This will allow you to make the Globe of Awareness available in all your classes and workshops. We welcome your order at www.ThisNewEarth.com.
