Wrapping Up

Foreword

Every person's life is a profound mystery. Deep and invisible currents make us who we are, and the world around us is full of secret purposes and laws. One reaction to all this mystery is to treat it as a problem to be solved, and to do everything possible to be informed and in control. But another way is to bow down in ignorance and confess our limitations. Religion and spirituality, for eons has been closely connected and offered creative ways to become individuals of depth and compassion by embracing spirituality.

The religions have a cherished cargo, but they often fail in their job by moralizing, intellectualizing, and defending themselves to such an extent that their real intention is clouded. Today individuals all over the world are deserting the religions in disgust and anger. Still, everybody has an instinct for transcendence. Individuals know that some kind of spiritual life is essential, and so a lot of people are exploring on their own or joining new churches and communities. They differentiate between their own personal spirituality they've found and the religious institution they've abandoned.

Chapter 1:

The Argument-Is there a God?

Synopsis

The philosophy of religion is one of the most captivating areas of philosophy. It addresses not only the repeated question is there a God, but also the questions if there is, then what is he like? The most important question of all is what does that mean for us?

These are questions that everyone should ask themselves at some point. This book attempts to demystify the philosophy of religion, and help people to reach answer and from their own views on these questions.

Is there a God? Or is just being spiritual enough?

Is There a God?

The debate concerning God's existence has, naturally, has a question most have asked since anyone can remember. That doesn't mean that no progress has been made. Some of the classic arguments for God's existence have been largely deserted, other people have been refined, and new arguments regularly appear.

The search for an answer to the question of God's existence shouldn't be written off as futile merely because the question is an old one.

If there's a God, then what is he like?

If they're successful, then none of the classic arguments for God's existence proves exactly the same thing. One argument, for example, aims to prove the existence of a perfect being. Another argument aims to prove the existence of a Creator concerned with humanity. Each of these arguments bears not only on the question of God's existence, but also on the question of his nature.

The same can be said of many of the arguments for atheism or spirituality. Most of these arguments seek to exploit a perceived notion that God does exist. This raises the question as to how those doctrines were formulated. The challenge if God is just, then how can he also be forgiving? The challenge if God is all-knowing, then how can our choices be free?

The arguments for atheism and spirituality are the same as the questions raised for organized religion. These questions are very similar and no one really knows the answer. Does God truly exist? Its up to you to educate yourself and from your own opinion, and that is what this book aims to do.

What Does that Mean for Us?

The third question, what does that mean for us, is asked less often than the previous two. What follows is admittedly over simplified. If God exists then we were created for a purpose; we're valued and loved.

If God exists then we also have an incentive, not to mention a moral duty, to fulfill this purpose; our eternal fate hangs in the balance. Whether we follow God, as we were created to, or rebel against his authority is up to us.

Atheism exerts pressure in the opposite direction: it affirms our freedom but it's often thought that it threatens our value. As a whole, those who have lacked belief in a next life have thought that this makes our choices in this life all the more important. Some believe that if there is no God, there is no God-given human nature, and so each of us is, in a sense, his own Creator.

We're free to be who we want to be. Atheism has also been associated with a pessimistic view of human value. If we weren't placed here on purpose, and if we came from the dust and will return to it, then in what sense are we important?

There are two ways to respond to this question. Atheists and spiritualists can, on the one hand, argue that value is about what we are, instead of why or how we got here. They can thus affirm that we're special despite our adverse origins. Or they can accept that we have no special value. Whatever conclusions we reach about these questions, the time spent answering them is time well spent. Religion, atheism, or spirituality underpins the way that we live our lives. The more clarity and confidence we have in our beliefs on these issues, the better.

Chapter 2:

Being Spiritual

Synopsis

Spirituality is one word that puts an individual on the highest pedestal in life.

The goal of Spirituality is attaining salvation! From the start of the first manifestation to the end last manifestation. The goal of every individual remains the same.

Accomplishing the stage of enlightenment is the main purpose of Spirituality.

Spirituality

Spirituality is one word that puts an individual on the highest pedestal in life. The goal of Spirituality is attaining salvation! From the start of the first manifestation to the end last manifestation. The goal of every individual remains the same. Accomplishing the stage of enlightenment is the main purpose of Spirituality.

Spirituality is living life as it was meant to be... not as we desire or want it to be. Living a life of choice isn't the forte of all people. Those on the path of pure Spirituality... the true seekers of Spirituality are occasionally able to manifest destiny by establishing absolute control over it.

It's a true fact that only the true seekers of Spirituality become the masters of their destiny. Knowingly or unknowingly many individuals who have a materialistic goal in life travel the path of Spirituality and become successful in life. It isn't a happening by chance... all was the result of a law. These highly acclaimed people unknowingly tread the path of pure Spirituality and accomplish their goals in their life.

Spirituality in other terms means that before we ask God the Almighty for material riches to be bestowed upon us... we need to compensate by giving something equivalent or more back to the community. This is the path undertaken by most successful entrepreneurs.

In terms of Spirituality we're not supposed to get anything unless we promise to do something in return... in the system of God there's fair play all throughout. As we desire. So shall be the corresponding karma we would be required to perform.

Spirituality definitely helps one take control of destiny. As we proceed on the path of pure Spirituality, we tend to develop a positive approach towards life. Reeling all the time under a positive attitude of mind. One is able to fine-tune those critical aspects of life, which are an absolute must if one needs to become the master of his own destiny.

Spirituality makes a perfect man out of a negative thinker. In the field of Spirituality, there is no place for any negative thinking. One who has fixed a goal in life and always indulges in positive oriented thinking can not be a loser in life. It can never happen!

Spirituality makes you feel all the time that there is something higher than the mere existence as a human being. Spirituality spells out that God exists within every living being as our soul. It is God within us, which guides us on the right path whenever we tend to go wrong.

Spirituality inculcates in every human being a feeling of positive ness all throughout. Floating on the positive mental plane brings one closer to our goal of life.

It's Spirituality and spirituality alone which prompts and guides one in the right direction whenever we feel cheated by the senses prevailing upon us. To be able to come out of the clutches of the five senses is what Spirituality is all about.

If we desire to know God truly then we need to follow the path of pure Spirituality. It's only as a true spiritual seeker shall we realize God one-day. It's a Spirituality which cuts short the path and makes the whole world look like a family. In the spiritual domain, there is no space for different religions, dogmas or creeds. Our wanton desires cease to exist... the moment Spirituality takes complete control over us!

Spirituality truly is the essence of life. However materialistic we maybe on the earthly plane there shall come a day when Spirituality would completely wipe us clean of all the impurities within us.

Without Spirituality the life of an individual is like a rudderless boat going round and round in the unfathomable sea of life. It's Spirituality, which teaches every individual the real value of life. being spiritual isn't being religious alone. Spirituality teaches us the core values of life. It teaches the real essence of us!

It's only through the medium of Spirituality that God is able to guide the mankind towards its destined goal. Many individuals have different beliefs and spiritual paths.

Spirituality has no relationship whatsoever with religion. Following a religion means following the dictates of a successful spiritual master. One who has already covered the journey and has become capable of mankind to its logical end.

Religion is meant for living a single span of earthly life. On the contrary, Spirituality guides every living being to its logical end in the unending cosmic journey undertaken by the soul. It's Spirituality alone which removes the fear of death from those who have released the pinnacle of spiritual life. Spirituality gives you a commanding position in life. This is not only possible but can be observed by watching the topmost rung of spiritual masters.

The presence of Spirituality in our lives cannot be done away with for it forms the inner core of our manifested physical life. Behind every success lies the core of Spirituality, which guides one inherently all throughout the cosmic journey.

Spirituality isn't to be practiced merely in theory. Spirituality isn't contained in the sacred textbooks alone. We simultaneously need to practice pure Spirituality and try reaching the end of the cosmic life. Achieving salvation in the present life would be something every human being would desire.

Why not all of us practice pure Spirituality all the time!

Chapter 3:

Spirituality Vs. Religion

Synopsis

More than ever, I think that it's crucial during these confusing chaotic times that we're going through, and to see some clarity through deception on every level, that we're bombarded with. So with this chapter I would like to shed some light about religions and spirituality. As I see it, being a religious person is more often than not confused with being a spiritual person. Some individuals are of the opinion that anybody who's religious is automatically a very spiritual person. Another misconception is a God-fearing individual can do and say no wrong at all. Regrettably, there's nothing that can be farther from the truth.

Spirituality Vs Religion

More than ever I think that it's crucial during these confusing chaotic times that we're going through, and to see some clarity through deception on every level, that we're bombarded with. So with this chapter I would like to shed some light about religions and spirituality.

As I see it, being a religious person is more often than not confused with being a spiritual person. Some individuals are of the opinion that anybody who's religious is automatically a very spiritual person. Another misconception is a God-fearing individual can do and say no wrong at all. Regrettably, there's nothing that can be farther from the truth.

It is essential to understand and to remember that all that life is spiritual. Spirit, a Divine energy, penetrates everything that lives. Spirit penetrates and lives in all and everything. Earth is spiritual, nature is spiritual, plants are spiritual, animals are spiritual and all humans both good and evil are spiritual. Spirit lives in each person, regardless what race, size or color; rich or poor; black, white, red, brown or yellow; man, woman or child.

It makes absolutely no difference to the Spirit. if you are a Jew or a Moslem, a Christian, a Hindu, a Buddhist, or an atheist for that matter who never prays spirit is in you. The Spirit is still there, it does not care if you know it, recognize it or ignore it. Spirit just is. Where there's life there's spirit.

Regrettably, that doesn't mean that everybody is aware of this fact or that everybody lives a spiritual life. Some individuals are more mindful and in touch with the Spirit within than other people are. When you're aware, conscious of and in tune with the Spirit in everybody and everything you're incapable of doing wrong or harm to anyone.

Why is that so? Because when you're in touch with your spirit, you know and are aware of the fact that you're connected with everything, that you are a part of the whole, and thus, if you harm others, you're harming yourself also. The level of awareness of the Spirit depends upon how evolved the person's soul is and the awareness level of the human being on the physical plane.

Why are some aware of what's out there and other people are not? Well, for instance, there are some obstacles that keep the person on a lower level of awareness the expression of Spirit through that person.

For example, a chronic negative attitude about life, a closed mind that refuses to learn and grow, pre-occupation with the daily mundane details and problems of the physical world, stress, anger, worry and tension, depression and fear, harboring resentments, envy, jealousy, revenge, or then being too busy having fun like chasing money, sex, fun, power, alcohol or drugs. All these obstacles leave little or no room for your spirituality to find expression through you.

With this, I'm not advocating that you turn away from your religion whatever that may be. There's no need to do that. Stay where you are and just change your perspective and attitude about your belief system. Believe in yourself and listen to your own common sense. You must reject anybody or anything that tells you otherwise. Believe that the good will prevail always over the evil. Believe that all humans are one and the same, all life is one and the same. Be a free-thinker and decide your own destiny, make up your own mind what is right and what is wrong and refrain from all wrongdoing. The way you dress, the hairstyle you have, whether your head is covered or not, believe me, makes no difference whatsoever to the Divine Spirit, to God.

God wants nothing more than to have you be a joyful person, doing good, spreading unconditional love, respecting yourself, your family, your friends and everyone else. Your thoughts are your own, no one can enter your mind and make you think anything if you do not allow them to do that. You are the one who controls your mind. Don't allow anyone to influence or hypnotize you into believing anything else.

Knowledge of the spiritual world, knowledge of the Divine, doesn't belong to any specific people, it has been known throughout the ages to both eastern and western hemispheres. When you're in tune with the Spirit within consciously, you feel inner peace, inner stability, you have an air of serenity and unshakable inner strength and determination.

You feel safe and protected, free of fear and it naturally follows that you gain in self-esteem. The more your spirit within you is developed the stronger these characteristics will be. Awakenning the Spirit within doesn't happen through aggressive pursuit. We do not have to work hard on being spiritual, it's a state of being not of attaining. You don't have to kill or to pray in certain postures x times a day to be spiritual.

All you need to do is to think about it, be conscious of it, and integrate it in your daily life, with every breath you take. Think about it consciously, it's the intent that's important. Rather than putting all your energy and mental powers into chasing money or fighting with someone, give a little of that energy to be in tune with your soul and the Spirit within.

The difference between religion and spirituality is this. Religion separates, excludes, condemns, criticizes, punishes, limits, causes friction, demands obedience, without giving plausible explanations other than reciting verses from holy books that have no relevance to life today; whereas spirituality, means harmony, peace, unity, freedom, spreading love, compassion, goodwill, joy and service to other people.

The first is imposed by men who give themselves the power to rule over others, claiming it to be God's will forcing the people to give up their own God-given freedom of thought and will. Being in tune with the Spirit on the other hand makes you feel whole and protected. I am not saying that Holy books are wrong, but you have to be smart to read through the pages to read the real true meaning of the messages.

Thanks to modern technology, the collective intelligence of humanity is evolving fast and we're moving towards unknown territories, one cycle of a great age is ending and another is beginning. This means new paradigms on a grand scale for everybody on this planet. What those paradigms are no one knows exactly.

A lot of information about this is available on the web at your fingertips, be conscientious to weed through the mess to find the real thing, the real jewels. Ignore the garbage.

The cosmic energies are changing and we can't carry on living in the same rhythm and way of the past, tune in and feel the new energies, your life will flow much easier. This is a wake up call. The sooner you wake up to what is really going on here all around us the easier the transition will be for you.

The only way that we can fight the violence is by focusing on the good all around us. There is a lot of good being done by many good people. Join the armies of good people, make it your mission to spread happiness and joy around you and life will give you back double-fold.

Remember a show of genuine affection, a kind word, a phone call, a hug, a kiss, a little gift, or helping a needy person works wonders to make someone happy and to spread goodwill in our world. We all need to spread as much goodwill as possible around us to counteract all the misery in the world.
