Wrapping Up

Foreword

Now, due to the extreme conditions we're facing, increasingly more and more individuals have to reinvent themselves. This is very exciting news for the world. We're, by choice or force, being placed on our true paths. We're living in one of the most exciting times in human history. It might not appear that way now, but one day you will look back and realize the magic of this time in your life. We're in the midst of one of the great economic and spiritual transitions in the history of the world and I am in the center of it.

Heed these words as you move forward in your life. The world is based on energy and it always comes back to you. In some cases, it moves quickly and in other people, it takes a lot more time. You Must Be Willing to Go Deep Within Yourself. The choices each individual makes on a moment-by-moment basis create the reality they live. You are able to go left or right. Each decision comes with its own set of possible outcomes.

Why are we here? What am I supposed to do with my life this time around? These are some of the questions I will explore in this book. You will join me on a journey into a world of conflict and contradiction. We will explore a world filled with manipulation and corruption. Your belief system will be challenged at every turn as we uncover some of the oldest and most powerful myths of this world.

My goal is to help you connect to your true self – to help you move away from conventional Thinking and create a life definition that works for you. We all have our own unique definitions for the elements defining a successful life. Unfortunately, most people spend their lives defending their life definitions to themselves and to the people who supposedly care about them the most.

Your objective is actually very simple. To become successful all you have to do is reach a state of complete inner peace. As you know, this is easier said than done in today's hectic world. If you are willing to shatter your current belief system and take a leap of faith, this will be a voyage like no other. Remember ... in order to continue, we all must have open minds so we can find OUR TRUE CALLING!

Chapter 1:

Find Your True Calling

Synopsis

Have you discovered Your Calling? Yeah. Your Calling. The reason you are alive. Your personal mission in life. If you do not have a clue what I am discussing, take a couple seconds to complete this quick quiz:

- Are you doing precisely the kind of work that makes you want to jump out of bed every morning excited to begin a new day?
- Does your work fulfill a need deep inside to express yourself, your talents, your values, and your unique and precious gifts?
- Does your work allow a balanced life – one that leaves time for family and friends, for physical activity or hobbies, for you?
- Are you doing what you love?

True Calling

Have you discovered your calling? Yeah. Your Calling. The reason you are alive. Your personal mission in life. If you do not have a clue what I am discussing, take a couple seconds to complete this quick quiz:

1. Are you doing precisely the kind of work that makes you want to jump out of bed every morning excited to begin a new day?
2. Does your work fulfill a need deep inside to express yourself, your talents, your values, your unique and precious gifts?
3. Does your work allow a balanced life – one that leaves time for family and friends, for physical activity or hobbies, for you?
4. Are you doing what you love?

If you answered “yes” to all of these questions, congratulations! There is a good chance that you've achieved what the Buddhist's call “Right Livelihood.”

If you have not yet found the work you were meant to do, keep reading. You are about to find your true calling – and when you find that calling that is uniquely yours, your life will be transformed.

“The way to find out about your happiness is to keep your mind on those moments when you feel most happy, when you are really happy – not excited, not just thrilled, but deeply happy.”

Now ask yourself how you feel each day, as you get ready for work. It probably sounds something like this. Your alarm clock buzzes and you get up. You drag yourself out of bed, dreading yet another day at a job that is high on stress and short on gratification.

I guess what I am asking you is this:

Are you happy working in a career that is fulfilling and enjoyable?

Because when you really love your work, you greet the day like this: You do not need an alarm because you cannot wait to get out of bed and dive into another workday where your work feels similar to play.

Maybe you think it is too late. Maybe you believe that you have somehow missed your calling and that you are not getting any younger.

However, this leads me to my next question. How do you find work? That will feed your soul? When you discover your calling, you may find your life taking you in unexpected directions.

You see, anyone can get a 9-to-5 J-O-B. A job is something that pays the bills but all too often fails to feed the spirit. In addition, when your spirit is starved for meaningful satisfying work, your happiness suffers.

Did you know that individuals who love what they do for a living actually live longer?

So here's your million-dollar question:

Do you believe you were put on this earth to sit in commuter traffic, to suffer through the performance evaluations and reorganizations, to have to answer to a boss that is well... you know...

Were you really created to spend your life having the Sunday night blues? On the other hand, do you believe, as I do, that you were put here to follow a calling that is uniquely yours?

If the idea of loving what you do appeals to you, the way I see it... here are your options: You can keep plodding along week after week hoping that inspiration will somehow, someday suddenly strike and – in a flash – your true calling will be revealed. You are able to make a promise to yourself right here, right now to take the first bold step on behalf of your dreams.

Chapter 2:

11 Tips to Help

Synopsis

Do you ever feel confused? Pulled in so many directions at one time that you cannot figure out what you are interested in or how it all could possibly fit together?

Underneath the indifference and confusion, there is still a voice saying, “There has to be more than this!”

There is.

The great news is that it DOES all fit together, because YOU fit together. You would not be the you that you are without all the fabulous bits that come together into the delightfully human you are.

See, you were designed this way. You have a purpose and a plan and your soul signed you up for ALL the challenges and opportunities you are experiencing.

11 Tips

Do you ever feel confused? Pulled in so many directions at one time that you cannot figure out what you are interested in or how it all could possibly fit together?

Underneath the indifference and confusion, there is still a voice saying, “There has to be more than this!”

There is.

The great news is that it does all fit together, because you fit together. You would not be the you that you are without all the fabulous bits that come together into the delightfully human you are.

See, you were designed this way. You have a purpose and a plan and your soul signed you up for ALL the challenges and opportunities you are experiencing.

However, it can feel pretty confusing and discombobulating until you finally understand what that plan really is.

Here are seven tips to help you find your true calling and understand your spiritual master plan:

1. Pay close attention to your deepest, most secret most inner longings. They are the voice of your soul, calling you to the exact right place where you belong.

For example:

- Do you dream of being on stage?
- Writing a bestselling novel?
- Producing a life-changing film?
- Changing the way people think about their spirituality?

Pay attention to these.

You are not just fooling yourself. Your soul knows what it knows. You would not be called to it if you did not have it in you. If you are called to it, it is part of your purpose.

2. Track the challenges in your life and unravel the common threads. Your challenges are your instructors. They show you the places you need to heal and grow so that you are able to become who you are meant to be.

Are you struggling with:

- Finding your sense of self-worth?
- Trusting the Universe and trusting others?
- Feeling bombarded by life and like nothing works out for you?

These clues tell you

- what you need to work on,
- what you are here to teach other people
- what you have chosen to master in this life time

3. Build a relationship with your Higher Self. When you pay attention to those yearnings, also ask your higher self for guidance. She embodies who you are, even if you do not yet consciously grasp the enormity of your brilliance.

By strengthening that relationship with your Higher Self, you strengthen that brilliance inside you.

What admirable traits do you have?

- Wisdom?
- Beauty?
- Kindness?
- Serenity?

4. Write a list of what is most significant to you. Be truthful with yourself. Think broader than simply a job. Is your family most significant? Your religious faith? Financial security? Ask yourself what you want to be remembered for. Your true priorities should direct your search for your true calling.

5. Write a list of what you enjoy doing and a list of what you do well. Look for overlaps. For example, if you love music and you are a skillful guitarist or vocalist, your calling might be connected with music.

6. Ask other people who know you well what they think you would be best suited at doing. Do not take their advice as the final say-so, but consider their input carefully.

7. Put down what you are presently disgruntled with. What would you like to see change?
8. Consider the needs around you. How do current needs and openings correlate with what you have to offer? Who could benefit from your talents, passions and abilities?
9. Take a personality assessment and career aptitude test.
10. Consider multiple chances for finding and living out your true calling. For some individuals, it may be a job, but for other people it may be volunteer service. Still others view their duties within their families as their means of carrying out their true calling.
11. Do not be afraid to try something new. Finding your true calling often involves trial and error. Take a chance and launch out into something you suspect might be your true calling. You may just succeed and discover greater satisfaction and purpose for your life. Even if you fail, you can learn more about yourself and which avenues you should pursue in the future.

Finding your true calling can mean different things for different people. The basic premise is your personal satisfaction with what you are doing. The process of discovering your true calling can take time, effort and even risk. Although it is not necessarily easy, you can follow some basic steps to make achieving this goal more accessible. These are powerful hints that guide you to who you really are at the core.

Cultivate them.

Chapter 3:

7 Steps to Following Through

Synopsis

When we have goals, we have our destinations in each period of our life. Whether we will get to those destinations depends on our actions. In order to have the right actions, we need to have a plan. It is however difficult for many individuals to follow through their plan despite the need to accomplish their goals. What are the reasons why they cannot follow through?

When we have goals, we have our destinations in each period of our life. Whether we will get to those destinations depends on our actions. In order to have the right actions, we need to have a plan. It is however difficult for many individuals to follow through their plan despite the need to accomplish their goals. What are the reasons why they cannot follow through?

One of the most common reasons that make individuals do not follow through is that they are not willing to be out of their comfort zone. We are all animal of habits. We generally do what were used to do. This is normal animal instinct. We feel safe when we are certain on the result we will get from our actions. The space that we limit our action is called the comfort zone. We are comfortable staying in that zone and on the contrary we feel unsecured when we are out of it. We have comfort zones in every area of our life. We need to realize how important it is to step out of comfort zone.

The disadvantage of remaining in your comfort zone is that you will never grow within it. You will not grow physically, mentally, spiritually, financially and on the relationships with other people. We must practice our mind to get used to working our way towards our goals despite feeling uncomfortable. The following seven tips will assist you in following through with your plan.

1. Acknowledge what you want and why you want it.

You need to know what you want out of your actions and the reasons why you want it. You will not be prompted to do what you are supposed to do if you are not clear on what you want. Clarity is your power to go to your target. Be clear on your goals. You have to decide what you want and then make the dedication to achieving it.

2. Decide what you love to do.

Your actions to your goals will have to be repeated it again and again. If you do not love what you do, it is very hard to continue doing. Your brain will tell yourself that you have no fun doing it. This is why individuals give up a lot easier than they are supposed to. Many individuals said they do not have option. On the contrary, they do not really decide to do what they love. Rather, they let themselves in doing what they do not like. It is up to your decision to stop what you think you must do and go to the area that you love most.

3. Begin doing something.

Another thing that happens to many individuals is that when they want something, they do not even bother to begin doing something. You are able to do anything by beginning to doing something that is aimed at your goal. Once you have the first step, other steps will be a great deal easier for you.

4. Keep your momentum

Once you begin doing something, do not let your actions die afterwards. Keep doing what is in your plan. Do not let your mind fly away while you take action. Center on your goals. You are able to make a vision board or some goal vision note to see as often as you want. This will prompt you of the importance of your.

5. Value your actions and results.

Review your actions and see if you need to correct anything. Keep your statistic and compare with the standard. Change your approach if you need to but never change your goals.

6. Resolve not to give up.

Not giving up is one of the best qualities of successful people. You need to make sure that you also have that quality. Commit to yourself that you will not give up no matter what happens.

7. Visualize your success regularly.

Visualization will make your subconscious mind attract what you want into your life. This is according to the law of attraction. You can attract all situations and attributes favorable to your goal achievement by visualization daily.

Visualize in your mind as if you are achieving your goals in front of you. Feel it and absorb what happens. You may want to add the background audio while you are visualizing. It will enhance your attraction. There are many background audios in the market. Attraction Accelerator can be one of your choices.

Not following through what you are supposed to do is one of the major hurdles to your success. This talks about why this happens and how to overcome it.
